You are invited to join a fascinating day of FREE displays, talks and workshops on a variety of aspects of Scottish, Local and Family History.

The day will feature four talks by expert historians and a family history workshop – see timetable opposite.

Throughout the day a wide range of national and local heritage organisations will provide displays and information about their work. Refreshments will also be available but the (sandwich/ two course?) lunch must be pre-booked.

West Lothian History and Heritage Fair is organised by the Heritage departments of West Lothian Council in partnership with West Lothian Family History Society.

Please note that all events are free BUT talks should be pre-booked as numbers will be limited. Remaining tickets will be available on the day on a first come, first served basis.

Lunches – open menu, payable on the day. Alternative catering may be found in the town.
